ELLE DECOR FOCUS

Time to kick back and soak up some sun! Lay out all your favourite holiday memories and be inspired to elevate your outdoor decor game. From mini balconies to roaring patios, we are setting the groove for your sweet sunny spot.

TREND AND STYLE DIRECTION BY YASHIKA PUNJABEE TEXT BY TANVEE ABHYANKAR PRODUCED BY JUHI AGARWAL

We Love...

...the idea of watching the sun shine after endless cold days, meditating in the greens and drinking up the wild air to wash weariness away from our spirits as the outdoors call out to the vagabonds in us. Serving serious design inspiration to get out and get going is this deck which is also a second living room in a Goan villa that was originally designed by Dean D'Cruz and restored to its recent glory by Meetu Akali of Studio Momo. HOT TREND YOURS ROYALLY

Let the Taj Mahal beckon! Bring home Mughal gardens, artisanal handicrafts and gloved tea parties. A carriage to your patio awaits

Your word is our command, you say royalty and we bring it to you! Express your patriotism in the decor—with micro-print table spreads, knotted rugs, and qandeels. Let the royalty of red sink in as you enjoy your Darjeeling tea on verandahs with chequered floors. The modern Mughal aesthetic that flaunt prints and canes so vividly is in place, cue Villa Palladio in Jaipur, designed by Marie-Anne Oudejans. Surround yourself with teapot cosies, pillows and tufted chairs and have a good start for the day. Photograph by Atul Pratap Chauhan Website: www.villa-palladio-jaipur.com

HOT TREND MAMMA MIA

The spring is set – get that picnic basket, hand-pick oranges on a spree and collect some freshly baked focaccia on the way to the backyard for some Italian-style scrumptiousness

Right in the lap of nature and comfortable linens, arrange a few vases, hook a nice swing on your tree's branch, get your freshly squeezed fruit juice outside and place it on the prettiest wrought iron table alongside your favourite book. With the abundance of Vitamin D and the birds chirping, Ebbio, the 13th-century Italian farmhouse owned by Francesca Bevilacqua, will warm your heart and lift thy spirits. HOT TREND DESERT SUNDOWNER

This is for the wild one in you. Evoking a burst of energy that only comes from watching leopards in the wild and hearing elephants trumpet—express your love for all things savage!

Melding with the echoes of booming sands and earthy colours around, sit in the tribal chair as the desert serves the wildest of its experiences to you. In the womb of the mighty desert, let the tent encircle the bonfire and shield you from the winds, may the soft rugs and striped pillows keep you warm at night. Photograph courtesy SUJÁN The Serai

HOT TREND CABANA CALLING

Take a cue from Greeks for that perfect sundowner or maybe an all-day soiree to create that perfect splash by the waters

Get your hats and kimonos out! With the bar table dressed in linens, experience the calm that nature is while sipping on chilled bubbly. Let the waves give you company as you find yourself soaking in the outdoors like how Caldera Houses Santorini does it, perfectly conceptualised in The Exotic Cave Suite, where the exterior and interior design is done by Fenny Petridi. HOT TREND
KITCHEN

What's more to a lazy weekend than to prepare lip-smacking tortillas, out in the Spanish sun! Even better when the entire family does it together

Ditch your usuals, bake your own pizzas outside in the mellow shade of trees and sunlight blesses the celebration of life. Just as Manuel Villanueva and Oro del Negro have cracked an open kitchen for Moredesign, you can too—arrange a few rugs, planters, and picnic tables to brace the food you make in your island kitchen. Worry not about the kids playing with pepperoni and dough, the deck furniture doesn't mind containing mischievous memories in it. Photograph by Alex Markus
